

Structural Technician /Engineer
Chichester Office

This is a wonderful opportunity for an experienced Structural Technician or Engineer to join a well-respected firm of consulting engineers based in Newbury and Chichester.

Archibald Shaw is a company which has a long stable history of over 55 years of working in a wide variety of sectors. Our established team in Chichester is looking for a talented senior engineer or technician with experience in all forms of building structures.

The ideal candidate should have excellent people and analytical skills, an ability to work from first principles and be able to communicate effectively with clients, and fellow professionals.

Salary negotiable

In the first instance please contact;

Jon Lord [Chichester Office] 01635 47369

Vincent Carpenter [Chichester Office] 01243 786471

All discussions will be held in the utmost confidence

Key Requirements

- Structural/Technician Engineer, with 5 years' experience.
- Considerable experience in the analysis, design and maintenance of structures.
- Excellent analytical skills in the diagnosis of building defects, including the renovation of ancient and listed buildings
- Able to promote the practice, develop a client base and take responsibility for projects.
- A passion for engineering and architecture, which can be expressed with a professional and friendly approach when dealing with clients, architects, and other professionals.
- Excellent oral and written skills.
- Excellent IT skills.
- Full driving license